

Unit 3

Lesson 5

Sustainable Development

Short Answer Questions:

1) What is sustainable development?
Write its importance.

→ Sustainable development is the socio-economic development that has capacity to continue in the long term.

→ It is very important. Some of its importances are:

- It fulfills the needs of people.
- It ~~cons~~ conserves natural resources.
- It saves national budget.
- It helps in social development.
- It helps the future generation to do work.

2. Write the advantages of Sustainable development.

→ Sustainable development is very advantageous. Some of its advantages are:

- It teaches us to be responsible.
- It helps to reduce waste.
- It allows the next generation to live a quality life.
- It helps to control climate change and pollution.
- It maintains financial stability.

3. What are the needs of sustainable development?

→ The needs of sustainable development are;

- To balance our economic, environmental and social needs.

- To increase use of perpetual natural resources and decrease that of the non-renewable resources.
- To decrease climate change.
- To maintain financial stability.
- To preserve resources for the next generation.

4.) What should be done to achieve sustainable development?

⇒ Many things should be done to achieve sustainable development. Some of them are;

- Present generation should be aware to keep resources for future generation.
- Such technologies should be made which help to conserve the resources.
- Afforestation should be done.
- Alternative sources of energy should be used instead of non-renewable sources.
- Poverty should be reduced.