

Name: Anuj Sapkota
Class: 8th Gr

DATE	_____
PAGE No.	_____

Social Written Test

F.M: 20 marks

Time: 40 mins

Answer the following questions;

1) ~~What is sus~~

1.

→ Sustainable development is the development which meets the need of present generation without depleting resources for the future generation.

→ The three aspects of sustainable development are; Economical development, Social development and Environmental Conservation.

→ Sustainable development is important because it ~~fulfills~~ fulfils the need of the present generation by without depleting the natural resources for the future generation.

2.

→ Good governance is the process of making fair or good decisions which are implemented and government works fairly.

→ The fundamental elements of good governance is Good decision making, accountable government and Corruption free society.

→ Any five roles ordinary citizens should play for promoting good governance in Nepal are;

- Following the laws.
- Participating in government many activities.
- People should speak against injustice and corruption.
- People should vote a good leader.
- People should be politically aware and educated.

3.

→ Save the Children was established by Eglantyne Jebb in 15th April 1919.

→ The activities of save the children are;

- To protect the children from poverty, hunger and diseases like HIV/AIDS.
- To support children by giving better education, health care and economic opportunities.
- To give emergency aid to children during volcano, earthquake, wars, etc.
- To promote the policy changes in order to gain more child right by enforcing the UN convention on the Rights of the Child.

4. → Human rights are the basic rights and freedom which belong to everyone of each country which are based on social values like fairness, equality, etc.

→ Any 5 functions of the national Human Rights Commission (NHRC) are:

- To protect and promote human right.
- To make everyone aware ^{about} ~~of~~ human rights.
- To coordinate with other non governmental organizations working to promote human rights.
- To contribute in strengthening of human rights.
- To review national laws, regulation and policies and make recommendation to government to follow them.